Copy, gift...

Copy a poem that you have chosen yourself and gift it to somebody, for whom you think such a gift might be important. Let it be a simple, human gesture – like reaching out to someone, offering them a hand.

Who for?

The person to whom you gift a poem that you have specially copied for them yourself might be someone in your closest circle (family, friends, neighbours, acquaintances close and distant). But it might also be worth looking further a field, where the word of a poem, carrying meaning and hope, offering support, might be especially needed – in nursing homes, retirement homes, orphanages, community centres, night shelters for the homeless, etc.

How?

Four steps suffice:

1. Decide, to whom you want to gift a poem;
2. Find a poetry book and choose a poem – remembering that your choice is for a unique person (so take into account their life story, their situation, what might be important for that person);
3. Download the specially prepared stationary card in PDF file from www.podarujwiersz.pl, print it and copy your chosen poem by hand – you can also add something personal: a dedication, comment, date, signature;
4. Gift it to your chosen person.

You can also gift the poem via the internet: photograph the card with the hand copied poem and send the text file to your chosen person – a comment or dedication also welcome.
